

The electronic book presents information on the results of study of astronomical manuscripts from the viewpoint of history of astronomy – assessment of manuscript material (astronomical treatises, monographs of cosmological character, materials on practical astronomy, instructions for conducting observations, calendar-chronological papers from religious and secular collections, anthologies, dictionaries and encyclopedias, astrological materials); a catalogue - database - of 360 Georgian, Persian and Arabian manuscripts of the X-XIX centuries annexed with annotations and visual material from collections of Georgian antiquities repositories located in Georgia and beyond its borders (Athos, Sinai, St Petersburg); besides, a dictionary of astronomical terms, additional material on authors, translators and collectors of manuscripts; gallery; extensive bibliography materials; list of Internet resources; full texts of four Georgian, one Persian and one Arabian manuscripts stored in an on-line database, which enables scholars to work directly with astronomical manuscripts.

